REPORT

Students of Botany Department of Vitthalrao Patil Mahavidyalaya, Kale participated in the plantation drive. There is large amount of cutting of trees for civilization but students of Vitthalrao Patil Mahavidyalaya Kale, took responsible drive towards conservation of nature. Most of the students prepare seed balls and collect them in botany department. This collection was done on 20 May 2022. Collected seed balls were stored in botany laboratory. Collected seed balls were thrown in the inaccessible area of Kale forest. Along with this student threw the seed balls in valley area with the help of teachers.

Students of bsc class were very initiative in this drive. All in all it was a great effort to conserve nature by students of Vitthalrao Patil Mahavidyalaya, Kale.
