Library Policy (2018 – 2019)

The Library Policy of Vitthalrao Patil Mahavidyalaya, Kale (VPM, Kale) was drafted and adopted in the year 2018. The next review is due in the academic year 2023-2024.

AIM

The VPM Kale Library aims to provide print and electronic media learning resources to support the academic, artistic, creative, recreational and cultural development of its students. The library would continuously strive to keep its resources and services up to date and student centric.

OBJECTIVE

To provide access to student and teachers to variety of resources i.e. Study Material, References, Journals, online resources etc.

MISSION

Librarians, teachers and students are partners in the procedure of continuous interaction for teaching and learning. The preparatory point of practical learning are the resources, and therefore the library aims to:

- Provide access to a variety of print and online learning resources that have been carefully chosen keeping in accordance with the educational needs and different curriculum followed at VPM, Kale.
- Communicate to teachers about all resources available in the library and to work with them in search of new resources for collection and development to support teaching and learning at VPM, Kale.
- To organize, manage and ensure appropriate use of facilities/services.
- Support students by inculcating a love for reading through information literacy and teaching research skills.
- The library resources collection is organized for efficient use by students, teachers and staff.

ACCESS TO LIBRARY AND ITS RESOURCES:

- The library working hours are similar for students as well as teachers.
- Policies and practices regarding the use of resources and services are to support free and open access to information.
- The library provides internet connections for students and staff to engage in research and communication.
- Computers can only be used under the supervision of the library staff.
- The library attempts to exhibit a physical environment which is conducive to learning for students, teachers and staff.
- The library organizes its resources and information in accordance with the relevant international standards.

ENTITLEMENTS FOR BORROWING:

Class BA, B.Com., B.Sc. Book for 1 week. Reference materials can be accessed in the reading area and used in the library only. These publications are resources that are used extensively by students and teachers for general reference. Under special circumstances, they can be borrowed by teachers for classroom use. Reference resources will not be allowed for home lending/reading. CD's/DVD's are for the use of teachers and staff only.

LIBRARY RULES:

The Library urges all students to make use of its resources optimally but sensibly.

In this regard, students are required to observe the following:

- The library being a learning area, students are expected to be silent.
- All students are required to take good care of the resources in the library.
- Students are expected to treat the Library environment with respect and the Library staff with consideration.
- The Library staff has the authority to maintain discipline.
- Eating and drinking is not allowed in the Library.
- Students must keep the Library in order.
- Wherever furniture is rearranged for learning convenience, the same must be returned to its original position.
- Students are not allowed to bring bags or other material, except notebooks, inside the Library. This also includes books that do not belong to the Library.
- Students are expected to take their belongings with them when leaving the Library. Please note that the Library will not be responsible for the loss of the students' possession.
- For any delay in returning the items borrowed, students will be charged an overdue fee of Rs.5/- per week

DUE CARE OF BOOKS AND OTHER RESOURCES OF THE LIBRARY:

- Students are responsible for the books and other resources checked out against their names, and are therefore expected to take good care of them.
- Marking and dogearing pages on books and other resources of the Library are prohibited.
- It is an offence to take away a book or any other publication including magazine, prospectuses and newspapers from the Library.
- Please note that the College will initiate appropriate disciplinary action against any student caught or found attempting to mutilate any resources belonging to the Library.

LOSS OR DAMAGE OF LIBRARY MATERIALS:

The respective borrower will be responsible for loss or damage of Library items/text books used by them. If a student misplaces or loses the library book then he/she shall be liable to pay an amount equivalent to the price of the book. In the event of a student losing books on more than two instances, the parents would be called to the College and the students may have to forego borrowing facilities for extended periods.

Students are expected to cooperate with the Library Staff in providing of learning resources and services to support their learning endeavors. For any assistance regarding the Library please contact the College Librarian.

COPYRIGHT POLICY:

We respect international copyright and intellectual property right law and we resort to photocopying of materials as permitted by law.

For Books: One topic or 10% of the document.

For Journals: One article from a journal issue or 3 articles if they are on the same chapter and together comprise less than 10% of the total journal issue.

No copyrighted material should be reproduced without prior written permission from the copyright owner unless a clear "educational fair use" exception exists.

Educational Fair Use of printed material and recordings: Teachers and educational staff are allowed to make single copies for their own use in research or classroom preparation of the following copyrighted works:

- a topic from a book
- an article from a periodical
- a short story, an essay or a poem
- a chart, a diagram, a picture or a graph from a book or a periodical
- a short excerpt (up to 10%) from a performable unit of music for study purposes.

Teachers and educators are permitted to make multiple copies for use in the classroom (no more than one copy per student) of the following works:

- a complete poem
- an article or a story
- an excerpt from a prose work
- one chart, diagram, picture per document
- up to 10% of a performance unit of music.

Educational staffs are permitted to make a single recording of student's performances for evaluation, rehearsal or archives; a single recording of an oral exercise or examination and/or an emergency replacement copy to substitute for a purchased copy is not available.

INTERNET USAGE:

The Library/Reading Room staffs expect the students to appreciate that it is a privilege to use the ICT resources in the library. The students are encouraged to use technology for accessing information and for research connected to classroom projects and assignments. They are discouraged from playing games or using the internet for non-academic activities when others require the system for academic use. The students are encouraged to use the technology in the library in a responsible manner.

COLLECTION, DEVELOPMENT AND RESOURCE SELECTION PROCESS:

1. The library collection should be developed for supporting the curriculum and core subjects.
2. It should also have scope for accommodating contemporary resources (electronic, print and non print, fiction, non-fiction, literature and subjects taught in the College).
3. The library should comprise a wide range of literary and factual texts reflecting different cultures and perspectives as well as making these available in the languages more relevant to its user by which internationalism will be promoted.
4. The library should develop a balanced collection of texts to support the whole College curriculum as well as catering to teachers and students interest in current events, scientific innovation, research and recreational pursuits.
5. The library should develop and enhance resources for professional development for teaching and non-teaching staff. Also, the library should have fundamental and contemporary resources pertaining to information literacy.
6. Selection of library material should be based on our collection development perspective and age appropriate criteria. Resources shall be appropriate in terms of subject area, emotional development, ability level learning styles and overall development of the students.
7. Resources will be selected using a range of selection tools: such as publishers catalogue (Print, Non print and online/Digital, educational and literary and professional websites) as a result from requests from Teachers, staff and students in a standard format circulated by Library Department.
8. Recommended resources enlisted on CIE, IBO and professional organization website / catalogue will be selected for building the library collection.
